

Sunday Homes

Sunday, February 5, 2006

The Dallas Morning News

••• Section L

Ellen Terry showcases Mediterranean-style residence on large site in Preston Hollow

Ellen Terry, one of the top-producing agents at Ellen Terry Realtors, is offering the home at 6130 Waggoner Drive for $2,349,000. Featuring four bedrooms, five baths and two powder baths, the residence is between Preston Road and Edgemere Lane, providing easy access to shopping, dining and schools.

“Built by Joe Kain and customized by the owners with their special touches, this beautifully designed home is like stepping into an eclectic contemporary Mediterranean piece of art,” Ms. Terry says.

An antique brick driveway, a flagstone entry and real masonry stucco combine to provide an attractive exterior package. Inside, there is an abundance of textured materials, from the limestone entry and oak wood flooring to the four imaginatively crafted brick fireplaces.

Ellen Terry with Ellen Terry Realtors has listed the home at 6130 Waggoner Drive. The four-bedroom residence is priced at $2,349,000.

Just off the European-crafted Siematic kitchen, which features stainless-steel backsplash, is a spacious office with built-ins. A study and a formal dining area are adjacent to the spacious foyer, which includes one of two staircases that features handcrafted wrought-iron balustrades.

Also downstairs is the master suite, which offers a custom tile fireplace, a sitting area, dual baths, an exercise area and a view of the pool and loggia area.

The upper level includes a spacious game room with antique wood beams and a wet bar, as well as a private home theater. a wood bridge landing leads to three bedrooms, each with a bath. Additional features of the home include extensive custom lighting, surround-sound wiring and a cedar closet.

For more information or a private showing of 6130 Waggoner, call Ms. Terry at 972-380-7702 or visit www.ellenterry.com or www.etterry.com.